If you build it, they will come! Port Moody's Shoreline Trail bike path has been a success since the day it opened. Families come from all over to cycle this easy and fun route on a separated paved bike path around the end of Burrard Inlet. There are two paths - one for walking and one for bikes. The path is well marked with two-way directions. There's lots to see - birds and wildlife, a fish hatchery, two parks, playgrounds, and there are many restaurants nearby.
